

LESSON 18 Key Questions

- What is a quadrat?

- How is a quadrat used to take samples of marine plants/animals?

- What precautions must the people who take samples follow to make sure their data are accurate?

- How can we recognize Ascophyllum nodosum?

- What does a holdfast look like? What is its purpose?

- Why should good stewardship practices be followed while taking samples?